

Nicole Fleshin is a singer-songwriter from Bradford, Ontario. Her edgy and energetic repertoire coupled with powerhouse vocals pulls strongly from both rock, folk and soul genres.

Nicole has been building a following, empowering others to be the best versions of themselves and to follow their heart, through her motivational story telling, and stellar performances. Her shows leave your senses fully awakened.

Selected as a 2026 Canadian Musicians' Co-operative Emerging Artist, Nicole has toured with the Coop in the Emerging Artist Showcase, visiting locations such as, Carrot Festival, Bradford, Meridian Stage, Barrie, Orillia Opera House, and Meaford Hall.

This summer, Nicole is performing community engaged performances in Bradford. Online, she shares her life experience and journey with her supporters. Performing with her band or solo.

Nicole Fleshin is currently writing in preparation for her new EP in 2027.